

Status Report

Date: 11/21/2021

What we are working on

Classes will need to be revised over time, especially when classes will be connected together. Improvements to the API are being made. Interface needs to be implemented.

What has been done

Classes have been initialized. The database has been constructed and the API structure has been started. The interface has been started and is working.